

Meeting: "Industry's world responsibilities"
(speed 4,7)

Record: 0779/A

4419

Date: 2/9/79

Time: 10.30

Place: Main Hall

No	Speaker	Country	Notes	Re-typed
390	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB	To think worldwide is difficult, but wanting to forget it, makes it impossible.
419	ANLIKER, Mr. Gottfried	CH	Only those who think in long terms and as a servant will find success.
439	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB
7500 440	HENRIKSSON, Mr. Torsten	S	The need to survive helped Sweden to become the nation it is now, because people had to search under guidance. I feared to go to Japan because of competition, but I there discovered true fellowship which I feel is missing in Europe.
480	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB
486	JAEGER, Mr. Bill	GB	Workers have got to find a new philosophy. How do we build a new and wider dialogue between nations and workers of the world?
522	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB
7500 527	SHIMAMURA, Mr. Michio	Japan	I am impressed by the thought to be able to listen to my inner voice, which I would like to go on doing. My interest for Africa has also become more real.
7500 556	TOMITA, Mr. Kenji	Japan	Management is the mirror of Trade Unions, and trade Unions are the mirror of management.
581	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB
7500 587	HALLER, Mr. Willy	G
599	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB
7500 607	PHILIPS, Mrs.	NL
624	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB
633	HOWARD, Mrs. Doë	GB	Evil is organised on a world scale.
649	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB
7500 654	MITTERDORFER, Mr. Karl	I	The economic development must be bring back to a more human notion. Change is a daily affair. Being ready to make the first costly steps brings understanding and unity.
725	COOPER, Mr. Neville	GB
733	BOURDIN, Mr. Claude	F
745	BUHAGIAR, Miss Josephine	Malta	Her vision for the workers of the world.

Recorded by: