ASSEMBLY STRIVES FOR MORAL UPLIFT

CAUX (Switzerland), Monday.

THE European Assembly for Moral Rearmament featured a Sunday session yesterday, by presenting plays and films which the Assembly leaders intend to disseminate as weapons in the war of ideas.

Among the plays which met with an enthusiastic reception was "The Good Road", which has a cast of 170 persons, composed largely of youths of 20 nations who recently returned to Europe from America.

Another drama to be presented force early in September. in the war of ideas is "Forgotten" German reporters said that Factory," an industrial play which thousands of letters had come in the miners' delegates from Bri-from Germans all over the occuand the chiefs of unions pational zones as a result of from Northern France reported their articles and broadcasts exhad brought a new spirit into plaining the work going on here. the pits and industry in general. The Japanese delegates held a

NEW CODE OF ETHICS special conference with So far. 2,300 delegates from 31 Chinese, and expressed regret at nations have attended the Assem-the sufferings Japan had caused bly since it opened on July 17. China. They and the Chinese Hundreds more are expected be-pledged themselves to fight tofore the adjournment at the end gether to create a new moral of September. Delegates from code in the Far East.

-(Sapa-U.P.) Italy are expected to arrive in