

Oxford Group Will Stay Till Sunday

Members Entertained At Lunch By Premier Ben- nett. Meeting Tonight.

The Oxford Group will stay in Ottawa till Sunday evening, Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman told The Evening Citizen today. The last general meeting will, however, take place on Thursday evening, and the remainder of the week-end will be given over to work of an individual nature.

"The Group is conscious that general meetings are not sufficient to carry out the work, and we are trying to organize a house party for the week-end where a chosen number will live under one roof with us. We had hoped to find a place convenient for both Montreal and Ottawa people to come for a house party, but we have not been able to find such a place convenient for the purses of those who will want to come," Dr. Buchman said. However, the Group will carry on the week-end training here despite the limitations imposed on them, he assured The Citizen.

The members of the Group were entertained at luncheon in the Chateau today by the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett with other members of the cabinet present. Meetings for business men and business women are called for five o'clock, while the general meeting will be at 8.30 this evening.

Evenin

Citizen

Canada

Evening Cit