

Show cast sings for PM

THE cast of the musical show Springbok Stampede yesterday met the Prime Minister, Mr. Ian Smith, outside his office in Salisbury.

The 45 young South Africans sang three songs for him and a spokesman told him they had come to Rhodesia to help establish a common understanding between the two countries.

Mr. Smith said they had visited the country on a "wonderful mission" and wished them luck.
—Iana.