BULAWAYO CHRONICLE

"Rhodesia can make a contribution to the whole world by showing how a multiracial society can work without distrust and corruption," Mr. A. R. K. MacKenzie, a retired British diplomat, said in Bulawayo yesterday.

Mr. MacKenzie, a member of the Moral Rearmament movement from Scotland, is on a tour of Rhodesia, South Africa and South West Africa.

Mr. MacKenzie and his wife Ruth were greeted by the Mayor of Bulawayo, Clr. Joanna Sharland in the City Hall.
