

Aberdeen gift for South African manse

THE Afrikaner "dominee" of the Dutch Reformed Church of South Africa, Dr Nico Smith (centre left), is presented with a cheque for £100 by Mr W. Finlay Moir, convenor of Beechgrove Church overseas committee. The gift from the Aberdeen church will go towards the building of a manse in the black African township of Mamelodi, near Pretoria. Looking on at yesterday's presentation is the Rev. Thomas Allsop (centre) and church officials. Mr Moir met Dr Smith in Pretoria earlier this year.
