MRA group on tour

A GROUP of 25 men and women from 15 countries will arrive in Rhodesia this week. They are a Moral Re-Armament Force which has been invited to this country by people of all races.

Most of them are under 25 years old, and come from all over Europe — from North of the Arctic Circle to Portugal — and from Japan, the USA and Morocco. A group have joined them from South Africa and Swaziland.

Mr Gosta Ekman, a former editor of the Swedish daily "Svenska Dagbladet" is with the group, as well as Conrad Hunte, former vice captain of the West Indies cricket team.

They start their visit with a showing of their musical presentation, "Time to Choose" at the Courtauld Theatre this Friday. For the next six weeks they have a wide-ranging programme in many parts of Rhodesia.
