

THE 40 youthful members of the cast of "Springbok Stampede" are hard at work rehearsing for the show, which opens at the Lyric Theatre on Monday. The cast, who travel round Southern Africa in a bus, arrived in Durban accompanied by vans carrying baggage and four tons of stage equipment. Seen rehearsing one of the numbers for the show are (from left) Molly Minnie, Hamish Scott, Kathy Plampin, Des Burton and Christine du Plooy. The show will run until May 23.
